Dear Parent/Carer,

Year 4 PSHE and Relationships Programme: Growing Up Ready

Promoting the health and well-being of our pupils is an important part of their overall education. One of the ways we deliver this is through our Personal, Social and Health Education (PSHE) programme. This looks at many topics including physical and emotional health, all kinds of relationships, and living in the wider world.

In the next few weeks our school will be welcoming the leading children's health and wellbeing charity - Coram Life Education (CLE) into our school to deliver some of the relationships and sex education (RSE) aspect of our PSHE programme to Year 4. This programme is designed to help children make healthy choices and keep themselves safe during their school years and beyond. From September 2020, relationships education became a legal requirement; parts of sex education were already legal requirements before this time, within the National Curriculum. The design of the programme has taken into account the requirements of the statutory guidance, up-to-date best practice guidance and the needs of our children.

You and your child will have the opportunity to give us valuable feedback regarding the programme; we will be conducting some evaluations with the children following their session and you are very welcome to come into school to see the resources for yourself.

The workshops, led by an experienced, trained CLE educator, will be delivered to our Year 4 pupils and will focus on body changes and keeping safe. Your Year 4 child will be exploring these themes within a lesson that will pre-empt the type of questions children often ask, such as:

- How will my body and emotions change as I approach and move through puberty?
- Why are girls and boys bodies different?
- Which parts of my body are private?
- What kind of physical contact is unacceptable and how should I respond?
- How can I say 'no' to someone and keep myself safe?
- Who can I talk to if I want help and advice, or am worried about someone else?

Appropriate questions that children might ask during the workshops will be answered honestly, factually and in the context of safe, supportive, loving and caring relationships. Each pupil's privacy will be respected, and no one will be asked to reveal personal information. All resources that will be used have been reviewed by the school for their suitability and tailored to suit our children's needs.

We recognise that parents and carers play a vital part in their child's RSE, and we encourage you to explore these questions with your child at home as well.

If further advice or support is required or you have any questions, please do not hesitate to speak to your child's class teacher or the PSHE lead.

Yours Sincerely

Mrs Jamal
